

A REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION was held at the Assembly Hall in the city of Madison Tuesday the 14th day of October, next, at 10 o'clock A. M.

The objects of the Convention are to consider generally upon the interests and welfare of the State, and to take all necessary steps to insure a safe, sound, and vigorous action on the part of the State and local organizations, and in such other matters as may properly come before it.

It is recommended that each Assembly District send two delegates, and it is hoped that good and true Republicans from all parts of the State will do so, and the General Assembly will provide for the same.
